Once upon a time, there was a young girl named Mary who could see ghosts. She could see them everywhere she went, and they would often talk to her. Mary was a kind and gentle girl, and she always tried to help the ghosts she met.

One day, Mary was walking through the graveyard when she saw a ghost that was crying. The ghost told Mary that her name was Sarah, and that she had been murdered by her husband. Mary was so sad to hear Sarah's story, and she promised to help her find peace.

Mary went to Sarah's husband and told him what she had seen. The husband was shocked and horrified, and he confessed to murdering Sarah. Mary was able to help Sarah's ghost find peace, and she was finally able to move on.

The Man Who Could Talk to Animals

Once upon a time, there was a man named John who could talk to animals. He could talk to any animal he met, and they would all understand him. John was a kind and gentle man, and he loved to talk to the animals.

One day, John was walking through the forest when he heard a cry for help. He followed the sound of the cry until he came to a clearing. In the clearing, he saw a young deer that had been caught in a trap.

John talked to the deer and calmed it down. He then carefully freed the deer from the trap. The deer was so grateful to John that it followed him home. John and the deer became best friends, and they lived happily together for many years.

The Woman Who Could Predict the Future

Once upon a time, there was a woman named Anya who could predict the future. She could see visions of the future, and she could tell people what was going to happen. Anya was a kind and wise woman, and she used her gift to help others.

One day, Anya had a vision of a great disaster that was going to happen. She saw that the disaster would destroy a whole city, and she knew that she had to do something to stop it.

Anya went to the city and warned the people about the disaster. She told them what was going to happen, and she told them how to avoid it. The people listened to Anya, and they were able to avoid the disaster. Anya's gift saved the lives of many people, and she was hailed as a hero.
