Synopsis

Mercy Thompson is a coyote shapeshifter living in the Tri-Cities area of Washington State. She's also a private investigator, and her latest case takes her into the world of the supernatural. A young woman has been found dead, and all evidence points to a werewolf attack. But Mercy isn't so sure. She suspects that something else is going on, something more sinister.

As Mercy investigates, she uncovers a plot that threatens to tear apart the supernatural community. Vampires, werewolves, and shapeshifters are all involved, and Mercy finds herself caught in the middle. She must use all of her skills and resources to stop the plot and save the people she cares about.
